

CURRENT HOME PAGE

- 1 Feminine background color might discourage male shoppers from exploring the site.
- 2 Repeated information is confusing and clutters layout.
- 3 Crowded navigation menu.

OUR GOAL

- Create a more gender neutral color scheme.
- Introduce dynamic image display to allow more visual variety.
- Consolidate page elements allow for more visual white space.
- Structure page layout to help user navigate the site faster.
- Eliminate unnecessary click-throughs.

1 Gender neutral color scheme.

2 Photos are presented in slide show format allowing for more visual variety and immediate visual browsing.

3 Consolidate page elements allow for more visual white space, and site restructure helps user navigate the site intuitively.

1 Drop down menus have been simplified by eliminating the redundant "women's" before each section allowing for a cleaner interface.

CURRENT PRODUCT PAGE

- 1 Layout of products is awkward and cramped.
- 2 Confusing navigation and filtering system with over crowding due to redundant information.

CURRENT PRODUCT DETAIL PAGE

- 1 Zoom feature is not entirely clear and very awkward.
- 2 Product information is not engaging and lacks detailed information about fabric care, sizing or features.
- 3 No indication of what user currently has selected or has recently added to their basket.

OUR GOAL

- Provide a more structured and segmented presentation of information.
- Larger images with more diverse views - including more “in-context” views.
- Create a more straightforward zoom feature.
- Open up white space to allow for easier navigation and open up room for personalized suggestions based on searches or previous site visits.

- 1 User must go back to basket view in order to review items.
- 2 No sense of hierarchy adding confusion on what to do next (no guidance).
- 3 Steps for checkout are too spread out creating more work for user.

OUR GOAL

- Eliminate unnecessary click-throughs.
- Streamline checkout procedure by reducing number of steps.
- Allow for quick edits throughout whole checkout procedure.
- Allow consumers to opt-out of creating an account.
